CLEVELAND MUST CHANGE HIS POLICY.

Columbus Daily News.—The present which has been everywhere against Mr. Cleveland's implied intent to restore the Queen is quite likely to lead to the abandonment of that policy unless Minister Willis has sincerely begun to carry it out. Whether such beginning has been made will be known on the arrival of the next steamer from Honolulu.

THE BROOKLYN EAGLE'S ADVICE TO CLEVELAND IS "DON'T!"

Brooklyn Eagle.—The traditions of the United States are against the annexation of foreign territories. They are also against the overthrow of governments or of administration anywhere, republican in fact or form, and against the replacement or restoration of monarchical institutions. The American people would be, we think, almost a unit in favor of these traditions.

Any one has a copy of THE PUBLIC LEADER of the date of Wednesday, October 5th, 1892, they will confer a great favor and place us under many obligations by bringing or sending it to us.

ALBERT MAYO, aged 42, a widower, and teacher at a district school in Crittenden county, was arrested, charged with attempting to poison his wife. A trial, a verdict of the jury, and sentence would be a suitable Christmas gift for that gentleman, but a widow one will probably be the one he will get.

JOHN J. REYNOLDS, the sole owner and proprietor of the Postoffice druggist, and druggist, of the post office, and Dr. C. T. Huff will be compensated for the drugs, stores, and wishes all Mr. Huff, friends and all other people of the community to call and see him. Mr. Huff's many friends will be pleased to learn that he is staying in this position.

THE Second District Union will meet in Baywood December 5th, and 6th. This is one of the most interesting meetings that is held by the Union. The Christian Endeavorers who attend are requested to take with them the Christian Endeavor edition of hymn books.

THE little 100-inhabitant town of Mc Kinney, Lincoln county, is on the map. And this little town has some women who will "keep" men. The reason is that there are a dozen or more who are engaged in a business that were looking for friends and found in. Both will have to visit a doctor and a milliner to get their faces and heads in a recognizable condition before they can be allowed to enter society again. Nothing but a fellow.

THOSE persons who have given or still wish to give a contribution to the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will please send all articles to Clevland to morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 8 o'clock prompt. The supper will be a grand success and money raised will be used to help the poor. C. A. needs help. There will be no concert and recitation at the Courthouse as at first intended. It was impossible to get talent, although our thanks are given to two or three who signed their names to assist.

Holiday of Postface To-morrow.
The Money Order Department will not be open. General Delivery open until 10 a. m. The Carriers will make only one delivery and collection at 7 a. m. After 7 a. m. drop letters in Postface instead of street boxes.

Edgewood Folks.

Edgewood is a small New England village and "folks" are some of its inhabitants. The action concerns itself with the experience of a young clergyman settled in Edgewood whom certain wicked schemers seek to destroy. The plot is intricate and full of suspense. It will be a grand success and money raised will be used to help the poor.

Mr. Heywood's "Tom I'lloway" is a creation and it full enough of rapid changes to satisfy a lover of pantomime and has manliness enough about it to please a shopkeeper. That talented young company will be the attraction at Opera House Tuesday evening, November 6th, and judging from the large sale of seats at present he will receive a cordial welcome.

THAT TAILOR'S BILL OF MINE.

As one who cons at evening over an album and minxes on the faces of the friends that he has known,

and in the leaves of fancy till, in shadowy design,

and who—well—that tailor's bill of mine!

The fang seems to glimmer with a slicker surprise.

But I know how to keep the bill from staring and light my pipe in silence, save a sigh that I have to take to make and with my tobacco—and I try to laugh and joke.

But I hear, beneath my study, like a fluttering bird's bill—anwering the door," and soon more of the same brings,

And I have a sense of conscience, in my heart an aching pain,

As I lay here I say I'm out—and they must call again!

If I could speak in earnest, I believe it adds a charm,

but I'm too now and then—it surely is no harm,

For I have extra flavor in life's old melody,

As I tip and say to creditors "I'll fix you up

A face of many beauty, with a form of legal grace,

Flavorful of my tobacco as the grain from the barrel,

And I'll thrill beneath the glances of those that I meet,

With my smile and shake and shiver and stroke

My smugly smile,

the "quire is full or grim,

And again I feel the pressure of his witty art.

As he deforms me gently, and in undeterables I stand,

And I am and shake and shiver and stroke

My smugly smile,

the "quire is full or grim,

I think if I could ever leave that Magisterial Court,

I'd never again be a full-deided, howling sport;

If some bold Christian gentleman would pay the court that fine,

I'll swear I'd never run again that tailor's bill.

But that I had a shivering throughout the living day,

Waiting for some one to come along and

"It seems to me they're soared you just about the Eliza climped in together, and sent me with the stuff!"

As shades of night were falling a step upon them.

Inform me that my grocer with his bill was standing outside the door, and when your poor old, oot, boy, and when you read my will

You'll find I called, and she now stands ready to pay her political debt!

For speedy relief and cure in cases of hernia, take Ayer's Cherry Pecten.

It controls the cough and induces sleep.

That dread malady, a gripe, having again made its appearance in our midst, it behoves everyone to take all precautionary measures against the violent changes of the temperature. At the first sign of a cold begins, when you will find a complete line of ladies', misses and children's at Miner's shoe store, will be a source of great comfort and protection to you during winter. A full

The Business Way!

The business way to advertise is to take space in your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unusable goods into money, and re-investing the money in those things which are salable.

Where Is That Banner Now?
Greensburg (Ind.) Review.—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a banner in their processions bearing the inscription:

AND GET $1 A BUSHEL

A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

WHILE CLEVELAND is trying to find job for broken and corrupt dynasties he should not overlook the dethroned "reigning family" of Brooklyn.

The balance of trade in our favor for the month of October has been heralded by those Free-trade papers which last year used to claim that the balance of trade theory was all bosh.

An old soldier, while driving through Lisbon, Conn., recently saw the Stars and Stripes on a schoolhouse floating upside down, owing to the ignorance of those in charge. He stopped, went in, saw the teacher, explained how the colors should be displayed, and had the satisfaction of seeing the mistake corrected.

The tax condition of the country is well illustrated by the railroads which, during the three months ending September 30 this year, showed a fall of 10 per cent in gross earnings in 13 out of 20 leading roads, as compared with the corresponding period last year. In this connection it may be well to remember that there has been a change of Administration since last year.

The industrial revival which was to follow silver repeal has not struck Philadelphia. Of the 90,000 hands employed in the 500 textile factories a year ago only 17,000 are at work, and only ninety of the establishments are in operation. In August only seventy-five per cent of the workmen in the city were idle and this number has increased to ninety per cent. All are waiting for the development of the Tariff policy of the Adminis-

WHAT IT MEANS.

Chairman Wilson Explains the Tariff Schedule.

Sugar Was a Difficult Question to Deal With.

In the Tobacco Schedule Those Rates Which Would Bring the Most Revenue Were Sought—Cotton Manufacturers Greatly Resisted.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Chairman of the ways and means committee, in explaining the tariff schedule, said:

Sugar has been a difficult subject to deal with. Sugar has been transferred to a free list by the McKinley bill, because nearly all the taxes paid on it went to the public treasury. After much consideration it was decided to reduce to one-half the duty on refined sugar, and to give the bounty one-eighth each year, leaving raw sugar untailed at present.

In the tobacco schedule those rates were sought which would bring most revenue. The present rates of 40 cents a pound on white tobacco and 35 cents a pound on dark tobacco did not meet our national establishment and actually reduced revenue. We make the rates $1 and $1.75 per pound on wrapper leaf and 35 cents and 50 cents per pound or filler tobacco, unstemmed and stemmed in each.

Manufacturers of tobacco are put in the same price. Cigars are reduced from 40 per pound and 25 per cent ad valorem, to 20 per pound and 25 per cent. It is believed to be the most productive revenue and is higher than the last of 1893.

Liquor animals are put at 20 per cent. Brandy is reduced from 35 cents per bushel to 20 per cent, which is about 12 cents. Breadstuffs of which we are immense exporters, are made free, except when imported from countries paying a duty on our own products, in which case it is 20 per cent.

First, vegetables, fruits, eggs and like food products are untaxed for the benefit of our own consumers, largely the working people of the cities. Salt in bulk is free, refined salt the same as in the former dutiable at rates prescribed for like articles. The tariff on spirits is put at double the internal revenue rates on like spirits, and some slight reduction is made on still wine, liquor, liqueurs, etc., but the latter engenders the interest of increased revenue. The duty on sparkling wines is likewise slightly reduced for the same reason, that on champagne being at 27 per cent duties, as against $2 from the McKinley bill, in 1893, in the last 1893, was 20 per cent, and now substantial reductions are made, especially on cheap cloths and prints, and the existing system of taxing by count of thread in the square inch is retained. Hemp and flax are made free; dressed and undressed, and 1½ per cent respectively.

Fleated and woven goods are put at 40 per cent, clothing at 35 per cent, rates higher than the committee desired, but deemed temporarily necessary because our manufacturers have so long been excluded from two-thirds of the wool of the world, that they have to become accustomed to manufacturing with free wool.

A sliding scale is, therefore, added by which the rates in the woolen schedules are to come down five points with the lapse of five years. Carpets, an industry in which we will soon be important, are to be taxed at 10 per cent, 10 per cent for Axminster, moquette and Wilton; 30 per cent for Brussels, while common grade 50 down to 20 per cent.

The bill provides that the duty shall be removed from wood in 1895. I am inclined to think good wood on July 1. In the silk schedule the reduction of rates are smaller than in cotton or woolen fabrics. Sole leather is reduced from ten to five per cent, leather gloves are classified according to quality, and 10 per cent, 10 per cent for men's and 20 per cent for women's.

This Y. M. C. A. Lyceum meeting in the Cox building, a large crowd being present. The unusual interest manifested between the new and enthusiasm in the work. Not only the members, but many people who have not attended should go next Tuesday night. Last night's program was a debate question, "Resolved, That There Should Be an Educational Qualification to Give the Right of Suffrage, Roman or Professor J. H. Bowland and J. W. Scott; negative, James T. Kackley and Alex. D. Coker. After a spirited debate on each, including many speeches and thoughts on the question, the audience, the question was decided in favor of the affirmative. A discussion by Ben Cox and an essay by Dr. John Sulzer were given. On the whole, the meeting was a great success.

SAILORS' PERIL.

The Schooner Louis H. Ran-dall Wrecked at Bay Port.

All Day Long Men and Women Clung to the Rigging.

The Life-Saving Crew Unable to Give Them Any Assistance—How They Prevented the Launching of the Dismantled Fears That Some Will Perish.

BAY PORT, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Patrolman Corwin, of the life-saving station at Smith's Point, Great South Bay, on coming west on his sunrise patrol at daybreak Tuesday morning, saw a four-masted schooner stem down in four feet of water, about a quarter of a mile off shore.

Only a small portion of her forward bulwarks was above water. Ten persons were in the rigging; one woman and three men were in the foregiving, four at the forecastlehead, one in the main shrouds and one at the main-masthead.

Word was immediately telephoned to all the stations along the line. The life-saving crews from Fargo station, Smith's Point, and Bellport hastened to the beach at the exact opposite where the wrecked vessel lay.

The breakers were solid, and lashed like fury on the beach, and it was impossible to launch a lifeboat. The life-saving crews shot out their life lines, but the waves dashed them to pieces, and the lines either burned or fell short.

The attempts to send them across the rigging of the wreck were all unsuccessful, but the trials were continued until every cartridge had been used.

Four men, however, arrived on the scene Tuesday afternoon with two rockets, but these were just as ineffective as the other shots. The wind was blowing from the west, and although the rockets were fired across the wind, the lines were blown wide of the wrecks.

Mrs. Samuel Newey, the wife of a life-saving patrolman, picked up a bundle of letters which had been washed ashore during the forenoon. They were all dated about twelve months ago, and addressed to the "W. H. Randall, schooner Louise H. Randall, Portsmouth, Boston and New York." Many of these were of purely business character.

The teamsters, with wrecks,

The portions of a cabin and a mangle-room suit were washed ashore, which evidently came from the deck cabin of the ill-fated vessel.

Among the driftwood were a number of broken plain frames, tops and ivory keys.

The men on shore think the schooner might have been laden with partly completed planes.

At nightfall the unfortunate people were at the fore and mainmast head. All sorts of rumors are heard along the beach, but the men finally saw two men climbing to a floating mast early in the morning, but a heavy sea struck them and they disappeared.

From the size of the vessel the life-savers think there may have been twelve or fourteen men on board, and that some of them were lost.

STARTLING INCREASE!

Inanity Last Year.

The increase of inanity last year over the previous year was startling! Think of it; persons suffering from nervous troubles, such as as sick and nervous headache, nervousness, neuralgia, hysterical fits, epilepsy, etc., were encouraging for you were no means of escape.

Now, however, the symptoms of loss of memory or some other equally deplorable condition ending in suicide or premature death.

Dr. Franklin Miles, the noted specialist, estimated 20,000 to the number of cases of nervous asthma, and in the result of his labors the only hope of those affected with the troubles named. His Restorative Nervine is a positive means of relief.

We have a few boxes of this active part in the campaign, throwing its entire weight into the democratic line.

A MEMORABLE RACE

It was a long one and for an enormous stake.

Western Post Riders Traveled Against Time from the Pacific Coast to the Mississippi River for Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

In 1850 St. Joseph, Mo., was the terminus of railroad communication, says a writer in the Savannah News. Beyond, the stage coach, the saddle horse, the ox team and primitive sleds were the means of transport thence to the Rockies and the Pacific slope. In the winter of 1850-60 there was a Wall street lobby at Washington trying to get five million dollars for carrying the mail overland for one year between New York and San Francisco. The opposition was extremely cheery, and William H. Russell, backed by Secretary of War Floyd, resolved to give the lobby a cold shower bath. He therefore offered but two hundred thousand dollars that he could put on mail from San Fran to Calais, St. John, St. Joseph, Mo., that would make the distance—nineteen hundred and fifty miles—in ten days. The bet was taken and April's fixed upon as the day for the race.

Mr. Russell called upon his partner and general manager of mail route business upon the plains, A. B. Miller, and asked if he could perform the feat.

Miller replied: "Yes, sir, I will do it, and by a pony express."

To prove that Mr. Miller purchased three hundred of the fleetest horses he could find in the west, and employed one hundred and twenty-five men. Eighty of these men were to be post riders. These he selected with reference to their light weight and known soundness. He also provided that the horses be loaded as light as possible; therefore the lighter the man the better. It was necessary that some portions of the route should be made of the state of twelve counties. The horse stations were ten to twenty miles apart and each rider would be required to ride sixty miles. For the change of animals and the shifting of the mails, two minutes were allowed. When there were no stage stations a proper arrangement sufficient to accommodate one man and two horses would be provided. Indians would sometimes give chase, but their cause ponies made but sorry show. The storm came after the thermometer dropped, of which could make a single mile in one minute and forty-six seconds.

All arrangements being completed, a signal gun on the steamer Sacramento proclaimed the meridian of 6th April, 1851, the hour for the start. Mr. Miller, Russell, and Mr. Miller's agents saddle horse, with Billy Baker in the saddle, bounded away toward the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, and made his ride of twenty miles in forty-nine minutes. The days were deep in the mountains and one of them was lost for several hours in a snowstorm; and after the Salt Lake valley was reached additional speed became necessary to reach St. Joseph on time. From these all went on until the plateau was crossed at Mayville, Kans.
